E.B.O.O.K Franchise Validator: Questions You Should Ask to Avoid Financial Ruin by by Donald Averitt, Lane Fisher, Rod Bristol, Jenny Childs

This book will help you conduct your due diligence and evaluate a franchise opportunity. You need to know what questions to ask during the franchise buying process. This book does not describe the steps of the buying process. Rather, it gives you the questions you should ask at each stage of the process. Only after you ask the right questions, the hard questions, can you determine if the opportunity is in alignment with your goals, and your family's goals. Ignore magazine articles and blogs with headlines such as, "The 6 Questions You Must Ask..." or 10 questions, 24 questions....what ever it may be. There is no way you can feel comfortable asking only 30 questions to evaluate a franchise when you are pushing $50,000 or $250,000 or a million dollars to the middle of the table. The book is broken down into chapters that give you the questions you should ask (and why), beginning with what may be the most difficult: "Questions You Should Ask Yourself (and your family)". It concludes with being prepared for the "Questions the Franchisor Should Ask You"...with literally hundreds of questions you should ask during the process. FRANCHISE VALIDATOR will help you avoid financial ruin and avoid family destruction! An educated buyer makes better decisions. One can never ask too many questions!
